The land on which the Mar Vista stands was part of the original grant of land in 1885 to the first settler on Longboat Key, Mr. Thomas Mann. The adjacent building dates back to 1912 and is one of the ten oldest structures on Longboat Key to survive a hurricane in 1921. It was possible then to see both the gulf and the pass; hence the name 'Mar Vista' meaning sea view

Some twenty years later a colorful character named Nimmo started selling sandwiches and fishing tackle beginning the tradition of good times in a casual atmosphere that has made the Mar Vista a popular gathering spot ever since.
